Terms & Conditions of Application:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

1. Please read these Terms & Conditions carefully and keep them for your reference. By signing the declaration on this booking form you acknowledge acceptance of these T&C's, and by signing you are entering into a contract between all parties concerned. This includes cancellation charges as outlined below.
2. This agreement is made on the understanding that each individual trainee takes full responsibility for his or her own behaviour in relation to applying these skills. ALL students must take out appropriate insurance before practicing these skills in any circumstances other than a training environment.
3. The author and trainer of the course disclaim any liability, loss or injury as a consequence of use or misuse, either directly or indirectly, of any information presented in either the course manual or during training.
4. Entry Entitlement: John Brett / The World Federation of Hypnotherapists reserves the right to refuse entry to the course or to disqualify trainees at any stage and will normally offer a full explanation of the reasons for such a decision.
5. Attendance: Students are required to attend all 11 module weekends in order to successfully pass the course. Please note that full attendance is essential in all but exceptional circumstances. Students who habitually arrive late, or leave early, may have this time deducted from their attendance record—and therefore may not satisfy the criteria to pass the course. Students who miss any training weekend will be required to attend the same weekend on the next available course (usually the following year) in order to obtain full attendance credit and certification.
6. Certification: The diploma will be awarded on full satisfactory completion of the course, attendance of all 11 weekends and submission of all homework/assignments. This decision will be at the discretion of the Course Tutor. Full certification will only be approved and awarded when all outstanding payments have been settled.
7. Course Dates: We reserve the right to change dates/venue under exceptional circumstances. If, due to unforeseen circumstances, a course is cancelled, candidates will be offered a place on the nearest alternative course or, if preferred, a full refund of all fees paid.
8. Payments: You will be advised about payment arrangements upon acceptance to the course and your card will be debited according to the options you have chosen. If you opt to pay in advance, then full payment must be received no later than 10 bank working days before course commencement—in time for funds to clear. If the monthly payment option is chosen, please note that your deposit and first instalment must be cleared before course commencement. Receipts will be issued upon receipt of all payments. The course fee includes a non-refundable deposit & administration fee of £250.
9. Cancellation / Refunds: Cancellation with refund can be made up to and including weekend 2 if a trainee is unable to continue the course for personal or health reasons. Following discussion with the course tutor, cancellation instructions must then be received in writing & the effective date for cancellation is the date your written instructions are received. Each module is an equal percentage of the course. The refunded amount will be the portion of the fee unused, if paid in advance, excluding the £250 deposit which is non-refundable. If paying by instalment—further payment will be discontinued.
10. Cancellation after weekend 2: If a student wishes to discontinue training for any reason any time after weekend two, unpaid portions of the course fee will still be payable under these terms and conditions and become due in full immediately. Refunds or waiver of outstanding fees will only be offered in exceptional circumstances following consultation and at the discretion of John Brett acting as Faculty Officer for The World Federation of Hypnotherapists.
