

The Front Of It!

Piracy of the High Cons

By Dusty Peterson
and Elizabeth McDonald

In the book of Revelation, the Bible prophesies an end-time person who, during the last days before the return of Christ Jesus, “deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do ... And he causeth ALL, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that NO man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark....” (Rev. 13:13-17, emphasis ours).

Many folks understandably ask how a single person can achieve such a feat across the entire globe without some high-level “conspiracy”. Indeed, they point to a passage in Scripture which appears to predict exactly that: “[T]en kings [i.e. ten major rulers] ... [shall] have one mind, and shall give their power ... unto the beast [i.e. the final Antichrist]” (Rev. 17:12-13). Folks also point out that it is a fact of life that people conspire, whether it be in the form of oil cartels, or organized crime, or big businesses ganging up together, or insider-trading, or simple bribes to judges. Whether it be for the sake of “love”, or money, or power, or favors, or ideology, or family loyalty, or “brotherhood”, people do conspire. (Some observers have noted too that a person can easily be serving another’s agenda without being aware of it.)

Here are some propositions we believe follow from one another. We urge the reader to consider them as a whole.

INTRODUCTORY NOTES

(1) Multitudes of conspiracy theorists today claim one or more of the groups on the chart overleaf to be key to an attempt to dominate the people of the world. Even though the chart is not exhaustive, every single group on it figures in at least one such theory.

(2) Since these theories often differ radically from one another, most are obviously misguided to a considerable extent. And, since a number of their proponents seem to be hugely gullible (or deliberate deceivers), there exists a strong temptation to reject all aspects of every such theory. However, many theorists are plainly sincere and have found sufficient evidence in support of their notion to convince them of the truth of it such that they feel able to go public with it.

(3) In view of this, would it not be reasonable (before we dismiss all such theories wholesale), to pause for a few moments and ask whether there might be a grain of truth to some of them? It would obviously be staggeringly naïve to assume that every theory one ever comes across is rational, but would it not also be a little naïve to assume that every last one of them can be ignored?

(4) Given all the above, would it not be sensible to take a step back and ask if any sort of pattern emerges through bringing together the better-reasoned and better-documented theories? Or, to put it another way, what happens if we attach a modicum of weight to the more justifiable theories? Is there, for example, anything in common among the groups named in them?

SATAN’S DEVICES

(5) Satan usually needs to be subtle – thus he frequently employs “fronts”. For instance, he used a serpent in the Garden of Eden; he used a group of pagan women to ruin Solomon; and he used Judas to do his dirty work when it came to our glorious Messiah.

(6) Satan also needs to counterfeit the true. According to Holy Scripture he produces false brothers, false teachers, and false prophets to counterfeit the true version of each. Likewise he set up a false Church (termed “Babylon” in the Bible) to counterfeit the genuine Church of Jesus Christ.

(7) Just as terrorist groups set up front organizations to help get funding, and communists use fronts to achieve their ends by stealth, so we can expect the false Church to utilize fronts in order to put as many souls off the scent as possible (including her own minions).

(8) This is a feature that the groups on our chart all share. Every last one can be shown to be connected to the same institution (an organization exhibiting all of the many features in Rev. 17-18 of “Mystery, Babylon the great, the Mother of harlots and abominations of the earth”, as Revelation 17:5 has it). Over the centuries, she has killed authentic Christians and Jews by their thousand. She is termed a “Mother” because she has created many “child” organizations – who serve as fronts – so she can advance her goals without it being evident that the same entity is behind them (and without her overall purpose being easily discerned).

OPPOSING ARGUMENTS

One argument employed to negate the idea of a wide conspiracy is that some groups which are said to be involved are implacably opposed to others on the same list. While certain groups do indeed claim to be antagonistic toward others, none of them is exactly known for its honesty. And their multifarious interconnections (not to mention their relationship to the same Mother) belie these claims. Just as a person’s thumb and forefinger must oppose each other in order to do numerous jobs, so some groups must “oppose” one another to achieve a particular goal. Every group on the chart is serving to ready us for the final Antichrist (2 Thess. 2:3), and this work often involves the creation of “opposing” wings – e.g. to foment wars (hugely effective for persuading nations to tolerate reduced freedoms). These wings also enable governments to embrace bad aspects of both sides while appearing to take a balanced, intermediate position.

Another objection is that the press and other news outlets do not report such a “conspiracy”. There are several flaws with this argument: (a) The press do expose parts of it, but the number of front organizations is enough to baffle most inquirers, especially in view of the secretiveness of these groups and the disinformation being circulated to muddy the waters, (b) Journalists are often unsaved and hence, according to 1 Corinthians 2:6-14, do not have the spiritual insight to be able to grasp the big picture, (c) If a seriously powerful conspiracy did exist, would it not have the power to obstruct investigations?, (d) Some conspiracy theorists really are nuts and discredit the findings of the rest, and (e) Media staff and their bosses are often admitted members of the Mother Church in question – and thus refuse to accept such a damning view of her. DP & EMcD

BACKGROUND TO CHART

Folks readily accept the suggestion of conspiracies in high places when watching a movie, but they understandably run from the idea in real life because it is much less comfortable to imagine they actually exist.

One or more groups on the following chart is identified by different observers as being the principal player(s) in attempts to “globalize” the countries of the world – i.e. to enable a single organization to control our society through the “mark”, as per the prophecy in Revelation 13:13-17. These groups are not merely cited by the lunatic fringe but also by credible observers. How is it possible for so many groups to be “in the frame”? Is it possible that they are all “fronts” for the same organization? They can indeed all be linked to one institution...

For example, the Bilderbergers were started by Retinger – a Jesuit priest; the Club of Rome was co-founded by the Romanist Peccei; the Illuminati was created by a professor at a Jesuit College (Weishaupt); and the most widely read New Ager was a Jesuit priest. (Note too that the groups below are very interlinked, but our chart only has space to show the pioneers of each organization. Bayith.org, our website, lists many interrelationships. We are still uncovering further entries.)

Sadly, the age-old strategy of “divide and conquer” is working. The enemy has given different names to parts of his army (and sometimes renames them too), thus confusing and dividing many of the folks who would seek to expose him. Different researchers are simply identifying different pieces of the same overall jigsaw puzzle. They should accept that other researchers have also located genuine pieces of the puzzle.

OBJECTIONS TO CHART

We don’t claim that the individuals in these front organizations know of this big conspiracy. In fact, the ignorance of as many foot soldiers as possible is vital if the work is to take place inconspicuously and as widely as is necessary. Thus we are not exposing some monolithic conspiracy. In truth, each group only needs serve the agenda of its pioneers (who, in turn, need only follow the orders of their masters, and so on). This shields the top-level agenda. Many organizations include servants who are utterly oblivious to the real purpose of the group they serve, let alone the overall plan. If they happen to uncover the truth, they often walk away – hence this empire is “part of iron, and part of clay ... [i.e.] the kingdom shall [only] be partly strong” (Dan. 2:41-43).

Some readers will dismiss our claim that Rome is at the head. Their objections are given below, alongside our answers:

(1) “Attendance at Roman Catholic churches is dropping in many places!” This is to misunderstand the core purpose of the false Church. Her goal is not to fill pews but to keep as many people from being part of the true Church as possible.

(2) “The list includes Freemasonry – a group Rome opposes!” Rome claims this but she is famous for her deceit! Both groups have the same basic goal. In fact many in the high echelons of Rome have been proven Masons – and not just in recent decades. For instance, Cardinal Lienart became a Mason in 1912; a Jesuit priest introduced Masonry to Costa Rica in 1865; and Abbe Nicolini was an important Freemason back in the 1720s.

(3) “Isn’t it the case that Jews enjoy prominent roles in many of these groups and that this is a more obvious common denominator than any link with Rome?” Bear in mind first that a number of these groups are unarguably anti-Semitic. Next, Satan needs to destroy the Jewish People if he is to stop their Messiah from returning (Matt. 23:39), which is why the Nazi Party did what it did – and why the world will come against Jerusalem in the last days (Zech. 12:3). To enable Rome to divert blame from herself while simultaneously turning men against the Jews, she puts Jews in the frame. How? If a Jew attains a position of power in his line of work, it is almost inevitable that Rome will seek to coerce or cajole him into joining one of the groups on our diagram. And if an existing member of any such group happens to be Jewish, he will invariably be given a high-profile position within it. (Where neither of these options exists, their “Extreme Oath” permits Jesuits to pretend to be Jews and therefore enables them to bring the Jewish People into disrepute this way.) It is true that the kabbala is central to some groups on the chart, but kabbalism derives from a Babylonian (Plato), not a Jew!

KEY TO CHART

- Names in bold are openly Catholic.
- If you disagree with any aspect of this chart, please consider the evidence we offer for it in the “Front of it” data table (in the “Rubies” section of our website, bayith.org) before deciding for sure.
- For clear proof that Rome is “Mystery, Babylon” (and for a biblical analysis of her shocking teachings and practices) we recommend the “World” volume of our book Alpha – the Unofficial Guide. Please see bayith.org for outlet details.
May God bless you and keep you
