

A request for a new, additional, reading room for the British Library

Is it possible to establish a new, additional, reading room for the British Library located somewhere near where Gloucestershire, Warwickshire and Worcestershire meet please?

The new reading room would initially be for accessing non-print publications that have been deposited with the British Library in accordance with The Legal Deposit Libraries (Non-Print Works) Regulations 2013 as that could possibly be achieved with a relatively small establishment.

Hopefully, as development proceeded, there could be access to some printed items as well.

Also, British Library exhibitions could take place at the premises of the new reading room.
